

CALENDARS

500 to 2199 AD

A. J. Hoare

Up to 1582 The Julian Calendar was in general use but Pope Gregory XIII's bill directed that ten days should be omitted after 4th October 1582 (4th October is followed by the 15th October), the bill also directed that only 1 in 4 Century years should be a leap year (only if the first two digits of the year are divisible by four).

The English stayed with The Julian Calendar until 1752 when 11 days were omitted to align itself with The Gregorian Calendar (10 days from the original alteration and 1 day from the leap year, 1700).

The listings in this file are for The English Calendar eg; The Julian Calendar up to 2nd September 1752 and The Gregorian Calendar from 14th September 1752. As some Catholic countries introduced The Gregorian Calendar in 1582, the listing for Easter Sundays and a Calendar Key have been added for reference.
